

March 2026 Newsletter

Save the Date:

The Section on Medical Education Business Meeting will be held on Sunday, May. 17, 12 p.m. ET. A light lunch will be provided; location to be determined. Join us for an interactive format focused on in-person networking and brainstorming—this will not be a “could’ve been an email” meeting, we hope to see you there!

Calling all Mentors!

We currently have 41 individuals seeking mentorship, but only eight mentors have signed up so far. Please consider volunteering and sign up here!

Interested in serving as a reviewer for the ATS Reading List?

The ATS Reading List new version is coming out shortly and Natalie Held, MD is looking for more reviewing help - if you love evidence-based medicine, reading, and lists, you won’t want to miss this opportunity!

Upcoming Webinar on institutional support for MedEd!

Institutional Support for Medical Education: Strategies for Early- and Mid-Career Scholars
3 p.m. ET, Tuesday, March 31
Contact Yuri Matsov, MD to get involved in future webinars.

Not getting Section on Medical Education emails?

If you or your colleagues aren't receiving emails from us, please log into your ATS account and check your communication preferences to ensure you're subscribed to emails from the Section on Medical Education.
Important: Be sure to open emails from ATS regularly! If a member doesn’t open 11 consecutive emails, they may be marked as “unengaged” and automatically removed from future email distributions.

Interested in leading an enthusiastic pod on Leadership or Well-Being?

We have research pods looking for more faculty leadership on both Leadership and Well-Being. If you are interested in leading these efforts, please contact Justin Liu, MD, MS, FCCP, ATSF & Mark Adelman, MD!
